RESOLUTIONS

Of the learned and eminently pious Divine, JONATHAN EDWARDS, Minister of the Gospel in Northampton, Massachusetts, and afterwards President of the College in New-Jersey.

BEING sensible, that I am unable to do any thing without God's help, I do humbly entreat him by his grace to enable me to keep these resolutions, so far as they are agreeable to his will, for Christ's sake.

Remember to read over these resolutions once a week.

1. Resolved, that I will do whatsoever I think to be most to God's glory, and my own good, profit, and pleasure, in the whole of my duration, without any consideration of the time, whether now or never so many myriads of ages hence. Resolved to do whatever I think to be my duty, and most for the good and advantage of mankind in general. Resolved to do this, whatever difficulties I meet with ; how many and how great soever.

2. Resolved to be continually endeavoring to find out some new invention and contrivance to promote the forementioned things.

3. Resolved never to do any manner of thing, whether in soul or body, less or more, but what tends to the glory of God ; nor be nor suffer it if I can avoid it.

4. Resolved never to lose one moment of time, but to improve it the most profitable way I can.

5. Resolved to live with all my might while I do live.

6. Resolved never to do any thing, which I should be afraid to do if it were the last hour of my life.

7. Resolved to think much on all occasions of my own dying and of the common circumstances which attend death.

8 Resolved, when I think of any theorem in divinity to be solved, immediately to do what I can towards solving it, if circumstances do not hinder.

8. Resolved to be endeavoring to find out fit objects of charity and liberality.

10. Resolved, never to do any thing out of revenge.

11. Resolved, never to suffer the least motions of anger to irrational beings.

12. Resolved, that I will live as I shall wish I had done when I come to die.

13. Resolved, to live so at all times, as I think is best in my devout frames, and when I have clearest notions of things of the Gospel and another world.

14. Resolved, to maintain the strictest temperance in eating and drinking.

15. Resolved, never to do any thing, which if I should see in another, I should count a just occasion to despise him for, or to think any way the more meanly of him.

16. Resolved, whenever I do any conspicuously evil action, to trace it back till I come to the original cause; and then both carefully endeavor to do so no more, and to fight and pray with all my might against the original of it.

17. Resolved, to study the scriptures so steadily, constantly, and frequently, as that I may find and plainly perceive myself to grow in the knowledge of the same.

18. Resolved, to strive to my utmost every week to be brought higher in religion, and to a higher exercise of grace, than I was the week before.

19. Resolved, to be strictly and firmly faithful to my trust, that that in Proverbs xx. 6, a faithful man who can find? may not be partly fulfilled in me.

20. Resolved, always to do what I can towards making, maintaining and establishing peace, when it can be without overbalancing detriment in other respects.

21. Resolved, in narrations never to speak any thing but the pure and simple verity.

22. Resolved, never to speak evil of any, except I have some particular call for it.

23. Resolved, to inquire every night as I am going to bed, wherein I have been negligent, what sin I have committed, and wherein I have denied myself; also at the end of every week, month, and year.

24. Resolved, never to speak any thing, that is ridiculous, or matter of laughter, on the Lord's day.

25. Resolved, never to do any thing, that I so much question the lawfulness of, as that I mean at the same time to consider and examine afterwards, whether it be lawful or no; except as I much question the lawfulness of the omission.

26. Resolved, to ask myself at the end of every day, week, month and year, wherein I could possibly, in any respect have done better.

27. Resolved, frequently to renew the dedication of myself to God, which was made at my baptism, which I solemnly renewed, when I was received into the communion of the Church, and which I have solemnly renewed this 12th day of January, 1722.

28. Resolved, never hence forward till I die, to act as if I were in any way my own, but entirely and altogether God's, agreeably to what is to be found in Saturday, January 12th.

29. Resolved, never to allow the least measure of fretting uneasiness at my father or mother. Resolved to suffer no effects of it, so much as in the least alteration of speech, or motion of my eye, and to be especially careful of it with respect to any of our family.

30. Resolved, to endeavour to my utmost to deny whatever is not most agreeable to a good and universally sweet and benevolent, quiet, peaceable, contented, easy, compassionate, generous, humble, meek, modest, submissive, obliging, diligent, and industrious, charitable, even, patient, moderate, forgiving, sincere temper; and to do at all times what such a temper would lead me to; examine strict every week whether I have done so.

31. Resolved, constantly, with the utmost niceness and diligence, and the strictest scrutiny, to be looking into the state of my soul, that I may know whether I have truly an interest in Christ or not; that when I come to die, I may not have any negligence with respect to this to repent of.

32. Resolved, I will act so, as I think I shall judge would have been best and most prudent, when I come to the future world.

33. I frequently hear persons in old age say how they would live, if they were to live their lives over again. Resolved that I will live just so as I can think I shall wish I had done, supposing I live to old age.

34. Whenever I hear any thing spoken in conversation of any person, if I think it would be praiseworthy in me, resolved to endeavor to imitate it.

35. Resolved, to endeavour to my utmost to act, as I can think I should do, if I had already seen the happiness of heaven, and hell torments.

36. Resolved, never to give over, or in the least to slacken my fight with my corruptions, however unsuccessful I may be.

37. Resolved, when I fear misfortunes and adversities, to examine whether I have done my duty, and resolve to do it; and let it be just as Providence orders it, I will, as far as I can, be concerned about nothing but my duty and my sin.

38. Resolved, never to do any thing but duty, and according to Eph. iv. 6—8, do it willingly and cheerfully, as unto the Lord, and not to man, knowing that whatever good thing a man doth, the same shall he receive of the Lord.

39. Resolved, very much to exercise myself in this all my life long, namely, with the greatest openness I am capable of, to declare my ways to God, and lay open my soul to him, all my sins, temptations, difficulties, sorrows, fears, hopes, desires, and every thing and every circumstance, according to Mauton's 27th sermon on the 119th Psalm.

40. Resolved, after afflictions, to inquire what I am the better for them, what good I have got by them, and what I might have got by them.

VISITING.

The Church, believing it to be a peculiar privilege, as well as a duty of the highest importance, to cultivate with each other, and constantly to exhibit, the graces of Christian affection and sympathy; and that those who are members of Christ's family should not be strangers to each other, but should fulfil the law of Christ by bearing one another's burdens. And also that meeting together and "speaking often one to another" freely and familiarly on our own spiritual condition and the habitual exercises of our minds—exhorting and encouraging, praying with and for each other, are some of the most efficient means of raising the standard of Christian attachment and promoting spiritual interest, comfort and growth in grace:

It is therefore earnestly recommended to the members of this Church that they meet often in small circles for the purpose of prayer and such religious conversation, as shall enable them to understand each other's feelings, views, desires, purposes, hopes, fears, doubts and prospects in relation to their spiritual concerns; giving to each other such counsel, admonition, and instruction as their respective cases may seem to require.

With a view to facilitate the above object, and in some degree to systematize the plan of visiting, the church is divided into six wards as follows:

1. N. West Ward. Which embraces all the members residing in the Upper Factory and Tolend Districts.

2. North Ward. Embracing all the members residing in Garrison-hill district, in Somersworth, on the main road leading to the upper Bridge and on the streets west of the same and north of the river.

3. East Ward. Embracing all the members residing on the east side of the river, and easterly of the main road leading to the upper Bridge.

4. Central Ward. Embracing all the members residing south and west of the river to Washington street, and on Central street, and on Court street and north of it.

5. South Ward. Embracing all the members residing on Pleasant street, and streets west of it, Dover Neck and Back river.

6. West Ward. Embracing all the members residing on Silver street, and north of it, and Littleworth districts.

There will also be appointed yearly six committees numbered from 1 to 6, of two brethren each, whose duty will be to visit in rotation, in meetings of such numbers as may be most convenient, all the members of the church in each ward, according to the plan of the following table:—

Com.	Jan. Feb.	March April	May June	July Aug.	Sept. Oct.	Nov. Dec.
No. 1.	N. W.	N.	East.	Cent.	Sou.	West.
No. 2.	N.	E.	Cen.	Sou.	W.	N.W.
No. 3.	East.	Cen.	Sou.	W.	N. W.	N.
No. 4.	Cen.	S.	W.	N. W.	N.	E.
No. 5.	Sou.	W.	N. W.	N.	E.	Cen.
No. 6.	W.	N. W.	N.	E.	Cen.	S.

Each committee will visit the ward standing opposite their number during the months under which the ward stands. By this arrangement it will be seen that each member of the church may have an interview with some one of the committees six times a year, and each committee will visit the whole church once a year.

EXAMPLES OF USE OF TABLE.

1. When will 4th committee visit N. ward? Find N. against No. 4, and on the top you find Sept. and Oct. the time required.

2. What ward will committee No. 2, visit in March and April? Under March and April, against No. 2, you find East ward, required.

3. What committee will visit Central ward in May or June? Ans. No. 2.—S. ward in same months? Ans. No. 3.

Resolutions of this Church respecting removal of Membership, passed March 15th, 1835.

1. Resolved, That we believe it to be the duty of members of this church going, permanently, to reside within the limits of another orthodox Congregational church, to remove their relation to such church within a reasonable time.

2. Resolved, That it be a standing rule of this church, that the invitation to members of other Congregational churches, to our communion, shall not be considered as extending, except in extraordinary cases, to those who may have become permanent residents among us, and whose residence is of more than one year's standing.

Resolution and Vote of this Church on TEMPERANCE, passed May 19th, 1833.

Resolved, That the use of ARDENT SPIRIT as a Drink, or the traffic in it as a Drink, under the light which at the present day prevails as to its baneful effects on the social and moral condition of the community, is inconsistent with such evidence of christian character as ought to entitle any one to admission into the fellowship of the church of Christ.

Voted, That every person hereafter proposed for admission into this church, shall be examined as to his or her views of the use of, and traffic in ARDENT SPIRIT by professing christians ; and no person shall be hereafter admitted as a member of this church, who shall not be willing to covenant to abstain wholly from the use of Ardent Spirit as a Drink, or the traffic in it.

COVENANT.

We do now, in the presence of God, angels and men, solemnly consecrate ourselves and all that we have to the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, in an everlasting covenant, to be his willing servants forever. Relying upon the assistance of his Spirit, we resolve and promise to discharge faithfully and conscientiously the duties appropriately devolving upon us, in the sanctuary, social prayer-meeting, family and closet. We will strive to deny all ungodliness and every worldly lust; to avoid even the appearance of evil, and to live in strict accordance with the doctrines, precepts, and ordinances which we have now acknowledged in the articles of our faith.

We also covenant with this church of Christ, that we will regularly worship and commune with them, and walk with them in Christian fellowship and love; that we will bear our proportion according to our ability in maintaining the worship of God in this church and congregation; and we will also devote a portion of our substance to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom in the world. We will conform to the discipline of this church as enjoined by Christ in his Gospel, and particularly in the 18th chapter of Matthew, and so long as we shall continue members, we will endeavor to promote its purity, peace, and edification.

Do you thus covenant and engage?

[DECLARATION.]

We now receive you to the communion and care of this church, regarding you as a member of the body of Christ. We ourselves acknowledge the same covenant obligations into which you have now entered. We pray that God would grant us grace to be faithful to this covenant, and to glorify him with that holiness which becomes his house.

And now, beloved, let it be impressed upon your minds, that the vows of the Lord are upon you, they will follow you through life, to the retributions of eternity, and in whatever world you may be found, will abide with you forever.
